

The logo features the name "Eric" in a large, elegant, cursive script. Below it, the name "PASLAY" is written in a smaller, all-caps, sans-serif font, slanted slightly to the right. A long, horizontal flourish line extends from the end of the "Eric" script, passing under the "PASLAY" text.

EMI Records Nashville breakout country artist, Eric Paslay, delivers a powerful punch as a renowned, Platinum-selling, hit songwriter and dynamic performer. Paslay has celebrated five No. 1 hits including "Even If It Breaks Your Heart" (Eli Young Band), "Barefoot Blue Jean Night" (Jake Owen), "Angel Eyes" (Love & Theft), "Rewind" (Rascal Flatts) and "Friday Night," the smash lead single from his critically acclaimed self-titled debut album. The Temple, Texas native earned nominations for GRAMMY Best Country Song, ACM Song of the Year and CMA Song of The Year for "Even If It Breaks Your Heart" in 2013 and earned his first GRAMMY nomination as an artist in 2016 for Best Country Duo/Group Performance for "The Driver" - a collaboration with friends Charles Kelley and Dierks Bentley. Most recently he was honored with an ACM Song of the Year nomination for "She Don't Love You" at the 2016 ACMs in Las Vegas. A true artist's artist, USA Today calls Paslay "flat out-brilliant" and American Songwriter names him an influencer of country music.

Paslay has joined friends Chris Young, Toby Keith, Garth Brooks and Brad Paisley on tour in 2016 and embarked on a full year of touring in 2017- both headlining theaters and clubs, and playing fairs and festivals. On the road he has been sharing new music with fans from his forthcoming sophomore album.
